- 7. The videotape operator shall select and supply all equipment required to videotape and audio-tape the deposition, and shall determine all matters of staging and technique, such as number and placement of cameras and microphones, lighting, camera angle, and background. The Material Witness, or any party to the action, may place upon the record any objection to the videotape operator's handling of any of these matters. Such objection shall be considered by the Court in ruling on the admissibility of the video and/or audio-taped record. All such objections shall be deemed waived unless made promptly after the objector knows, or has reasonable grounds to know, of the basis of such objection.

- 8. The deposition shall be recorded in a fair, impartial, objective manner. The videotape equipment shall be focused on the Material Witness providing testimony; however, the videotape operator may, from time to time, focus upon charts, photographs, exhibits, or like material being shown to the Material Witness during the deposition.

- 10. The videotape operator shall not stop the video recorder after the deposition commences until it concludes, except, however, that any party may request a cessation for a brief recess, which request shall be honored unless another party objects and states the basis for said objection on the record. Each time the tape is started or stopped, the videotape operator shall announce the time on the record. If the deposition requires the use of more than one tape, the end of each tape and the beginning of the next shall be announced orally on the video record by the video tape operator.
- 11. All objections, both as to form and substance, shall be recorded as if the objection had been overruled, and the Court shall rule on the objections prior to admitting that portion of the deposition. The party raising the objection(s) shall be responsible for preparing a transcript for the Court to consider. All objections to the evidence presented shall be deemed waived unless made during the deposition.
- 12. The party offering the deposition in evidence at trial shall provide the court with a transcript of the portions so offered.

the parties do not object to the Material Witness' release, the attorney for the Material Witness shall immediately serve all parties with a Stipulation and Proposed Order for Release of the Material Witness, and submit the Order to the Clerk of the Court for the Judge's signature. After preparing the requested copies, if any, the videotape operator shall turn over the original videotape to the notary, along with a certificate signed by the videotape operator attesting that the videotape is an accurate and complete record of the deposition.
- Upon request by any party, the court reporter shall file with the Court the original 16. videotape, along with any exhibits offered during the deposition, all in a sealed envelope marked with the caption of the case, the name of the Material Witness, and the date of the deposition. To that envelope, the court reporter shall attach the certificate of the operator. If all counsel stipulate on the record, the U.S. Attorney's Office may maintain the original videotape until production is ordered by the Court or requested by any party.
- 17. Unless waived by the parties, the court reporter shall give prompt notice to all parties of the filing of the videotape record of the deposition with the Court pursuant to Fed. Rules Civ. Proc., rule 30 (f)(3).
- 18. If any party objects on the record to the release of a Material Witness from custody, the objecting party must request in writing a hearing on the issue before the district judge who is assigned the case, or to such other district judge or magistrate judge as may be designated. Notice of the Request for Hearing must be served on all parties and filed with the Clerk of the Court within twenty-four (24) hours after the deposition is concluded. A courtesy copy of the Notice shall be provided to chambers. The Court shall set a briefing schedule, if appropriate, and a date and time for the objection to be heard as soon as reasonably practicable. At the hearing, the objecting party must establish to the Court's satisfaction an appropriate legal basis for the Material Witness to remain in custody. If, after the hearing, the Court orders the release of the Material Witness, the Material Witness' attorney shall immediately present the release order to the Court for signature and filing. Before the Material Witness is released, the U.S. Attorney's Office must again serve the Material Witness with a subpoena for the trial date and a travel advance fund letter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
